MAJOR AND MRS. SYDNEY A. CLOMAN left San Francisco yesterday on their way east to Major Cloman's regiment in Michigan. It is expected that they will stop off in Salt Lake for a few days when they will be at the Hotel Utah. During their stay in San Francisco they have been the honored guests of a number of friends, among which were the friends of Mrs. Cloman. The major and his wife were guests of the friends of Mrs. Cloman at the hotel last Monday night, given by Frederick Yeates, who was a guest of the Clomans at the hotel last night. The occasion for a large number of the friends of Mrs. Cloman at the hotel last night was the giving of other complimentary things. The friends of Mrs. Cloman at the hotel last night were the friends of Mrs. Cloman at the hotel last night.

Word comes from Chicago announcing the marriage there on Monday last of Miss Alberta Thurber of Yorkville, Ill., and Harry Gathier Crabbe, the hardware merchant of this city. The marriage took place at the home of the Rev. M. C. Long and was the result of a romance dating back to a Yellowstone park trip two years earlier. Mr. and Mrs. Crabbe are for a lake trip and later will be at home in Salt Lake.

The week just ending is about the quietest in a society way that the town has seen in years, and except for the usual attractions, next week bids fair to be the same. The time of the entire society has been so taken up in preparing for the summer season that the week of "sweet charity" that the society folk at least will have a hard time escaping the nervous prostration which is fashionable nowadays.

Miss Helen Oberndorfer entertained a number of her young friends at a delightful and quite informal card party last evening at the family home on East Fifth street. Six tables of 500 were played and a supper followed, when Mrs. Oberndorfer and Miss Marion Oberndorfer joined.

Mrs. Walter E. Ware was called suddenly to Evanston, Wyo., during the week by a telegram announcing the death of her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Hartley. Mrs. Ware lost her father only a few months ago.

J. David Herblin, who was here last winter with the Garrick stock company, is back and is at the Semhol for a short stay.

Dr. Miles Varian, who has been practicing medicine in Sagasta county, California, for some years, is here on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Varian, at their home on Sixth East street.

Miss Ida Savage will leave very soon for a tour of Yellowstone park in company with a party of friends.

Miss Ruby Knowlton has gone to Spencer, Idaho, to spend the summer with friends there.

Mrs. George H. Blanchard has returned from a visit of some time in California and is with Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Blanchard. Miss Carolyn Blanchard also is a guest in the home from Cincinnati.

Mrs. Clarence Robertson and her children, from Twin Falls, spent a day or so in the city recently on the way to California and visited Mrs. Robinson and her daughter, Miss Frank.

Mrs. Edward J. Roberts of Twin Falls is here visiting the J. J. Daly family.

A large number of dinners are to be given at the Country club this evening, although no one is expected to attend. The dance following will draw a large number of the young people for the evening.

Mrs. J. E. Bamberger and her daughter, Miss Dorothy Bamberger, who have spent the last fortnight here, will leave tomorrow for New York where they will sail later in the month for a stay of some three months abroad.

Miss Gladys McConaughy will entertain today at a luncheon at her home for Miss Beulah Behle, who is to be married on Wednesday.

Mrs. Mary Sullivan will entertain this afternoon at an affair at her home in honor of Mrs. Ewald of St. Louis.

Mrs. Joel Nibley will leave this morning for Loxan where she will spend a fortnight or so with relatives.

Mrs. S. A. Whitney and her family will go to Brighton this morning for the rest of the summer, having taken the Karkick cottage there.

Mrs. E. M. Best has leased the family bungalow at 183 K street to Mr. Lewis for one year. Mrs. Best will leave for Loxan for the rest of the summer to visit her son, Dr. H. P. Emer.

MINISTERS TO OBSERVE LABOR SUNDAY, SEPT. 3

NEW YORK, July 14.—In a call sent out today by the federal council of the churches, more than 125,000 Protestant ministers are requested to preach on some phase of the labor question on Labor Sunday, September 3. It is recommended that wherever possible union service be held by the church on Sunday night to which organized labor and all other working men and women be invited, and that the various ministers preach sermons appropriate to the occasion in their own churches on the morning of September 3. The movement is in line with a resolution adopted at a recent convention of the American Federation of Labor, designating the Sunday preceding the first Monday in September as Labor Sunday, and asking the churches to devote the day to the discussion of some phase of the labor question.
